

Your voice matters. Make it heard by joining

Neuropoint

mindroom

A group of neurodivergent young people aged 16 to 25 who want to make a meaningful change to the lives of their peers.

Why should I get involved?

- To make a difference in the lives of neurodivergent children and young people.
- To connect with other neurodivergent young people living in Scotland and make a lasting impact.
- To share your insights and experience in a friendly and comfortable environment.
- To grow new skills.
- To be part of a solid community that understands and welcomes you.

Your voice
matters. Make it
heard by joining

Neuropoint

How does it work?

- The group has a friendly, inclusive and understanding atmosphere, and gives you the opportunity to socialise at each session.
- The group meets online (Teams) the first Wednesday of every month from 6 to 7.30 pm.
- A list of topics to be discussed in the meeting (an Agenda) will be sent in advance by email.
- The meeting will start with a social time to welcome all members, share news and catch up.
- There will be time for anybody who wishes to share their ideas or thoughts.
- There will be a short break in each session.
- Together, the group will help in the development of new services and resources. We will guide professionals to make decisions for neurodivergent children and young people.

Get in touch

For more information about Neuropoint or to join the group:

Phone or text 07341 264 045

Email sima@mindroom.org

Website www.mindroom.org